Beach St. Saturday morning will be closed until 9:30 am. Plan to arrive later Sat. to avoid crunch at 9:30 am.

Saturday, Oct. 25th - late afternoon to 10 pm – Sock Hop & Car Show at the Hatch – at Down the Hatch Seafood Company 4894 Front St., Ponce Inlet. Food and beverages available for purchase including low-priced sock hop specials.

Sunday, Oct. 26th – 9 am to 4:30 pm – Blue Grotto Blast - display of special interest cars & trucks at Blue Grotto Restaurant adjacent to the Halifax Harbor Marina Park, 125 Basin St., Daytona Beach (turn east off S. Beach St., just south of Orange Av.) Drawings begin at 3 pm for door prizes and $1,000 cash. Breakfast, lunch/dinner, and beverages available for purchase.

To display your special car or truck at Riverfront Park between 9:30 am and 5 pm Friday and/or Saturday, and in order to have your special vehicle photographed alongside the Halifax River for your terrific free keepsake photo, you'll need to drive onto the lawn in Riverfront Park and in order to do this, you'll need to head north on Beach St. in the block that's south of Int'l Speedway Blvd. (US 92 aka ISB) and north of Magnolia Av. and drive through the big turquoise decorative arch in that block. Signs and volunteers in yellow vests will assist you entering Riverfront Park, finding a parking spot and getting in line along the sidewalk adjacent to the river to have your photo taken. In order to drive toward the entry arch, you can head north on Beach St. from Orange Ave. on the south, or you can head east on Magnolia Ave. and turn left on Beach St., or you can enter Beach St. from ISB on the north and drive south to Magnolia Av. to make a U turn so you're heading north on Beach St. to enter at the turquoise decorative arch. Beach St. Saturday morning will be closed until 9:30 am.
